October 1923

Failures By W. H. Bates, M.D.

than others? One succeeds, the other falls. The facts are that the parient cured in one treatment does at once what he is raid to do. He does not think or argue about what he is raid to do, at least he does not my no explain why he is admit to do certain things, but simply goes about and and does it as

The Queetion Mark
Questions and Assowers taken from The Retter Eyesight League Marting