October 1922

The Journal of the Allied Medical Associations has recently published a page review by W. Wallies Fritz, M. D., of 'The Cure of Imperient Epocight Without Glasses,' [link] Dr. Bitter' restricts on the new science of ophalmelogy. This review from an important scientific and professionate TRAT all interested sides in caused by expain, that the removal of the emis causes a notes to normal vision and that all human below should have restlect sides without the use of shows an orien maintained by Dr. W. H. Russ in his book. "The Cure of Innovertic Side by Transvert Without Glasses." In procuring the equal-town report this all this conductions are bound for libraries are bounded for the first desired and the second of the fig. The form Accommendation as Deceasing of the first desired for the first desired and the first desired for the first de