June 1921

One boy I started at 2020. For some reasons he could not read a letter until be got to the top of the card. I then had bin palm and read with each eye alternately. In a few moments he had read correctly every line to the very end—2020.